

Speakers 2002

- January 21st* Mr. Robert J. Barro, Professor of Economics, Harvard University
Topic: "The US Economy after the September 11 Terrorist Attack"
- February 5th* Dr. Ricardo López Murphy, Former Minister of Finance of Argentina
Topic: "The Argentinean Crisis"
- March 4th* Mr. Václav Klaus, President of the Parliament of the Czech Republic
Topic: "The Czech Republic at the Gates of the EU"
- April 8th* Sir. Howard Davies, Chairman, Financial Services Authority (U.K.)
Topic: "Has history started all over again?"
- May 21st* Sir Evelyn de Rothschild, Chairman, NMR Rothschild & Sons
Topic: "Family Businesses and the Challenges of Survival"
- June 10th* Mr. Leszek Balcerowicz, President, National Bank of Poland
Topic: "Reforms, Enlargement and Catching-up"
- September 24th* Mr. Mario Blejer, Former Chairman, Banco Central de la República Argentina
Topic: "The Argentinean Economic Crisis: Current Situation and Prospects"
- October 21st* Mr. Luigi Spaventa, Chairman, CONSOB (Italy)
Topic: "Corporate Governance"
- November 13th* Baron Alexandre Lamfalussy, Chairman, Committee of Wise Men of the EU
Topic: "Reasons to Develop in the Regulation of the European Financial Industries"