

Speakers 2004

- February 12th Mr. José Luis Rodríguez Zapatero, President of the Government, Spain
Topic: "The Socialist programme for the next Spanish General Elections"
- March 1st Dr. Olivier Blanchard, Chairman of the Department of Economics, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (M.I.T.)
Topic: "Medium run prospects for Europe"
- March 3rd Mr. Igor Ivanov, Minister of Foreign Affairs in Russia
Topic: "The Current Situation in Russia: The Political lines of the Newt Presidency"
- May 8th Mr. Anthony Ruys, Chairman, Heineken International
Topic: "Heineken and the World around Heineken"
- April 1st Mr. Richard Greenhalgh, Chairman, Unilever U.K.
Topic: "Acting Responsibly in the Global Market: The Challenge for International Business"
- April 19th Dr. Takatoshi Ito, Professor of Economics, University of Tokyo
Topic: "East Asian Economic Cooperation and Integration: Japan's Perspective"
- May 10th Dr. Luis Ernesto Derbez, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of México
Topic: "Mexico: Current Situation and Prospects"
- May 19th Dr. Tommaso Padoa-Schioppa, Member of the Executive Board, European Central Bank
Topic: "European Challenges Today"
- June 21st Mr.. Mario Monti, Member of the European Commission responsible for Competence
Topic: "The European Union Competition Policy"
- July 8th Mr. Ferdinando Beccalli, President and CEO EMEA, General Electric Topic: "Growing in an Uncertain World"
- July 14th Mr. José Montilla, Minister of Industry, Commerce and Tourism of Spain
Topic: "The Programme of the new Spanish Government in Commerce, Industry and Tourism"
- November 29th Mr. Bassim Jaï Hokimi, Chaiman, ONA (Omnium Nord Africain), Morocco
Topic: "Morocco Today: Economic, Financial and Cultural Aspects"